Adminstration

The Obama government has placed a huge premium on what it calls “national service.” It has launched a website, www.Serve.gov which is reported to act as a clearing house for Americans enthusiastic to “give back” to their communities. Unluckily, Americans looking for an opportunity to volunteer may get a little they weren’t expecting. By typing “ACORN” into the explore field entitled “What interests you” at Serve.gov, you’re elated to allforgood.org where you can choose from a list of volunteer opportunity, with “healthcare activist.”

GOOGLE is Skynet Google is going to take over the world Comparison Chart.

Everybody knows about SkyNet. The homicidal AI in the Terminator movie sequence that became self-aware, decided that humans were its enemies, went crazy Now a number of interesting parallels can be drawn stuck between Google and SkyNet. Skynet achieved total world domination by 2029, and Google by now has successful monopoly over web search and it is still 2009. Of course there are a team of small discrepancy like how Google crawl billions of webpage’s and store them whereas Skynet used a huge nuclear arsenal to take out the human battle.
